

THE ALL HALLOWS WAY

December 2024

Welcome to this Christmas edition of our school newsletter, where we celebrate the incredible achievements of our pupils and staff. From academic excellence to extracurricular triumphs, we are proud to highlight the dedication and hard work that makes All Hallows so special.

In the last few weeks, our assemblies have focused on Advent and preparing for the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ. We have lit the Advent candles and our pupils have been reflecting on the messages of Hope, Faith, Joy and Love and what Christmas means to them. We are really proud of our Year 11 students who took a leading role in delivering this message.

This term, we have recognised the academic excellence of our pupils and celebrated their successes with our Annual Awards Evening. Pupils were recognised for both their achievement and effort, along with special recognition for efforts within the community. In addition to our academic excellence, our pupils have continued to excel in their extracurricular activities. There has been sporting success in football and flag football, a Year 7 residential, university visits and work with DWF for the 5 Star Futures Programme. Furthermore, our pupils have demonstrated their performance abilities in Ten Pieces and The Christmas Showcase. Pupils have fully embraced the leadership roles as members of the School Council, Reading Mentors, Caritas Ambassadors and Prayer Captains. I am continually impressed by our pupils at All Hallows and the dedication that they show to their learning journey.

I also wanted to recognise the excellent community work that the staff and pupils have done this term. Pupils have donated to Loaves and Fishes and Mission Christmas and this really does show their generosity. We welcomed our community neighbours into school for our Annual Community Christmas Party. It was a festive morning and we even had a visit from Father Christmas!

As we reflect on this last term and look forward to the next, we encourage our pupils to continue to strive for excellence in every area of their education. I am looking forward to seeing what they will achieve and encourage you all to follow our social media accounts so that you can keep up-to-date with all that happens at All Hallows.

None of this would happen without our wonderful staff so I would like to take this opportunity to say a big thank to them for all their hard work. I hope you enjoy our Christmas newsletter and I would like to take this opportunity to wish you a very happy and Holy Christmas.

God bless,
